PilotMall.com 2009 Flight Training Scholarships

St. Petersburg, FL, October 10, 2008 - PilotMall.com Inc. announced the PilotMall.com 2009 Flight Training Scholarship Program.

This scholarship program was designed to give three individuals a chance to fulfill their dream of learning how to fly, by offering one $1,000 and two $500 flight training scholarships. These awards will be made to U.S. citizens without regard to age, sex, race, religion or national origin. The recipients must be enrolled in a flight-training course with plans to complete a private pilot or sport pilot certificate. Potential applicants can visit www.pilotmall.com/scholarship to learn more, or to apply for this scholarship. The scholarship deadline is March 15th 2009. Scholarship recipients will be announced April 21, 2009.

“The gift of flight has given me the greatest sense of freedom that I have ever experienced. I want to give that same opportunity to others. I believe this scholarship will help students get one step closer to acquiring their dream of flight.” said PilotMall.com President Neil Glazer.
